Assessing Our Disciple-Making Culture Worksheet

Individual Assessment

Step 1: As an individual, use the assessment below to assess your disciple-making culture.

As a church, we have a disciple-making culture rooted in the practice of Jesus-style disciple-making instead of a programmatic discipleship culture.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Least Like									Most Like

Disciple-making is our church's articulated mission, our primary growth engine, and our people's normative behavior.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Least Like									Most Like

Our current culture and operating system enhance our Jesus-style disciple-making efforts.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Least Like									Most Like

We often celebrate our disciple-making success with real stories of life change produced by generational disciple making of everyday disciples vs. staff and program driven transformation.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Least Like									Most Like

We have an agreed-upon disciple-making language that is clear and consistently used throughout every ministry of our church to reinforce our disciple-making mission.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Least Like									Most Like

Our lead minister, staff, elders, and volunteer team leaders set the pace for our church in modeling of Jesus-style relational disciple-making.

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
Least Like									Most Like

Team Assessment

Step 2: As a team, compare your answers and discuss which of the statements challenges you the most.

Step 3: As a team, identify your most significant barrier to creating a disciple-making culture in your church.