Disciple Making Culture (Macro-Discipleship)	The beliefs, habits, and narrative of a church constantly repeated with congruence and intentionality, that make it clear to almost everyone, all the time, including newcomers, that disciple making is what everyone does in this church

Disciple	Someone who is following Jesus, being changed by Jesus, and is committed to the mission of Jesus (Matt. 4:19)
Disciple-maker	A disciple of Jesus who enters into relationships with people to intentionally help them follow Jesus, be changed by Jesus, and join the mission of Jesus

Term	Definition	Accept, revise or rewrite?	What would prevent you from embracing the definition?
Discipleship	Is simply the state of being a disciple. This word (like the word evangelism) is not in the Bible. Unfortunately, in the North American church, discipleship is typically seen as an educational process designed to orient new believers to the biblical and everyday practices of our churches - and so we often prefer disciple making.
Disciple Making Movement	A rapid and exponential increase in disciple making disciples within a local culture who plant multiple churches and these churches are churches which multiply disciples, groups, and churches of obedience-based disciples so that we can see at least four generations of churches produced in six streams of disciple-making activity and these streams multiply consistently into disciple making churches (100 churches or more within 2 to 5 years).
Disciple Making Church	Is a church where disciple making is the core DNA and culture of the church, where the average church member makes disciples to the fourth generation and this disciple making activity is regularly produced in significant and diverse streams within the church and these streams multiply consistently into new churches.

2. How clearly have you defined your disciple-making language?
3. What definitions do you need to work on clarifying/adding to create a disciple-making culture?
